CORPORATE CENTER

750 Centerton Road, Mount Laurel, NJ

Front & Rear Building Entrances

750 Centerton Road is a modern three-story, Class A office building located at the Laurel Creek Corporate Center, a 47 acre master planned office park with maximum visibility and direct immediate access to Interstate 295, Exit 43 in Mt. Laurel, NJ. This location places the campus within minutes of NJ Turnpike Exit 5, less than twenty minutes to Philadelphia, and within a 90 minute drive of Manhattan.

The office campus features lush landscaping including four ponds, waterfalls, and walking paths amongst five technologically advanced, Class A office buildings. The Whitesell built and owned facilities are exceptionally designed allowing for a highly functional corporate environment yet maintain a character of serenity through the blending of exterior and interior elements. Site designed as a park to enhance the quality of life for employees, the buildings are clustered around ponds with water flowing over dams of stacked fieldstone into a lower lake, and feature stone bridges and paths connecting buildings and leading to perimeter parking areas.

The Laurel Creek Corporate Center received a "New Good Neighbor" Award from the New Jersey Business and Industry Association in 2007 based upon the project's economic benefit, job creation, architectural merit, and involvement in the community.
